City of Los Angeles QuakeSmart Workshop

The City of Los Angeles Emergency Management Department is hosting a workshop for businesses and organizations with FEMA on Thursday, May 18, 2017 and we would like to invite you!

Did you know that 40% of small businesses never reopen following a disaster? Learn about business continuity, disaster response, and other cost benefit of preparing for earthquakes and other business disasters. This preparedness workshop will help you develop a plan and take action by performing preparedness and mitigation activities.

Please extend this invitation to all businesses and organizations within your district. This workshop is completely FREE, but registration is required and space is limited. I have attached the invitation for this event, here you will find a direct link to register. If you have any questions or want more information, please feel free to contact me.

Learn to Win Grants for your Agency, Project Grantsmanship, May 22-26

Project Grantsmanship offers complete, interactive and state-of-the-art training. This project is supported by The Annenberg Foundation, Dwight Stuart Youth Fund, The Ralph M. Parsons Foundation, S. Mark Taper Foundation and the California Community Foundation.

Training Dates:

May 22-26 in Los Angeles

Why?

Project Grantsmanship is designed to strengthen Los Angeles County community-based organizations by providing the essential tools and skills to secure funding for the services they provide, and to develop a solid foundation for future programming. Through individual exercises and group projects, participants experience the full grant proposal development process: from researching funding sources to writing and reviewing proposals. For more details and to apply, click here.

How much does it cost?

Thanks to the generous underwriting of Project Grantsmanship's partner foundations, the cost for this 5-day workshop is only $200 or $300 per person (depending on the organization's budget), instead of the standard $995 tuition.

Who can participate?

Applicants must be either board members or paid staff from 501c(3) nonprofit organizations that are based-in and serving Los Angeles County and have budgets of $10 million or less.

Only two people from each qualified nonprofit may participate over the lifetime of Project Grantsmanship. Unsure if your organization has already filled two spots? Find out.

Each training is limited to 25 participants; applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Where?

The Grantsmanship Center
350 South Bixel Street, Suite 110
Los Angeles, CA 90017
